- Acting and advising on a large range of procedural matters such as applications to set aside default judgments; applications for pre-action disclosure; European Enforcement Orders; charging orders; and issues relating to legal privilege.
- Rob has advised on and drafted pleadings in a wide range of commercial matters such as in relation to contracts for the provision of security services, IT services, recruitment agency contracts and claims arising out of the CMR Convention.

Aviation & Travel

Rob has experience representing airlines in relation to claims under the Montreal Convention.

He has also acted in the County Court for a package holiday provider defending a claim under the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018.

Rob is currently instructed (led by Guy Blackwood KC and Tom Bird) by reinsurers under aviation operator reinsurance policies in respect of claims by aircraft lessors arising out of the Russia-Ukraine war.

Commodities & International Trade

Rob is developing his practice in this area of Chambers' work. He has drafted submissions in multiple GAFTA arbitrations.

He acted in a DIFC-LCIA arbitration (led by Paul Toms) concerning alleged repudiatory breaches of an international sale agreement for gasoil and gasoline.

Insolvency

Rob has appeared in a number of insolvency matters including bankruptcy petitions; contested winding-up applications; applications for the rectification of the register under the Companies Act; and has successfully resisted an application to set aside a statutory demand.

Gaming Law

Rob is developing a practice in a range of gaming disputes. He has acted in the defence of a number of online gambling operators, in which issues relating to the companies' regulatory obligations and their terms and conditions of use have arisen.

Rob has drafted defences in cases where fraudulent ID has been used to register accounts with gambling operators and claims where it has been alleged that gambling operators have failed in their regulatory duties to protect consumers from pathological behaviour.
