

Simon Gault

Called: 1970

Simon is a professional arbitrator and mediator, handling a wide variety of international maritime cases. He is a full member of the London Maritime Arbitrators Association. His arbitration practice involves deciding disputes arising under time and voyage charters, bills of lading contracts, sale and purchase contracts, shipbuilding contracts, contracts for the sale of goods, marine insurance policies, and agency and commission agreements. His mediation practice involves assisting parties reach a negotiated settlement in similar types of dispute.

Simon is also the Honorary Secretary of London Maritime Arbitrators Association. In this capacity, he advises on and lectures about a wide range of issues which arise under the Arbitration Act 1996. He is a barrister with over thirty years experience of arbitrating and litigating shipping cases. He was counsel in a number of leading shipping or arbitration cases. He appeared as counsel in a number of wreck inquiries. He practiced from Quadrant Chambers and served as the deputy head of those chambers for a number of years. He is now a door tenant of those chambers.

Before qualifying at the bar, he had 5 years experience in the shipbuilding industry both in the UK and overseas. After retiring from practice, he was appointed chairman of a shipping group, and was responsible for instituting a programme of rationalization of the group. He has over 11 years of judicial experience as a recorder of the crown court, as deputy admiralty registrar, and an assistant boundary commissioner. He is a trustee of a number of charities including the Incorporated Council of Law Reporting. He was the general editor of the last two editions of Marsden - Collisions at Sea. He is a member of the Baltic Exchange.

To visit their personal website click here